Many seniors learned outside the physical classroom...

Completed a culminating experience 84%
Studied abroad 52%
Took an online course 60%
Performed volunteer or community service work 71%
Are confident they can generate a research question 57%
Can identify what is known and not known about a problem 69%
Derive satisfaction from working on a team that is doing important research 62%

...In part by engaging in research

Percentages present "Very & Absolutely" and "Strongly Agree & Agree" responses

In college, they honed their leadership skills...

Participated in leadership training 42%
Served as a leader in an organization 66%
Effectively led a group to a common purpose 71%

Prepared for their future careers

Percentages present "Yes," "Frequently," and "Very Important & Essential" responses

And are ready to become leaders in the workforce and in the communities

Percentages present "Very Important & Essential" and "Above Average & Highest 10%" responses

The College Senior Survey by the Higher Education Research Institute (HERI) at UCLA is designed as an exit survey for graduating seniors that connects academic, civic, and diversity outcomes with a comprehensive set of college experiences to measure the impact of college.