

2023 PROVOST'S FACULTY DIVERSITY RECRUITMENT & RETENTION FORUMS

Northeastern University's Office of the Provost hosts this series to build upon momentum across the global university system as we take action to improve diversity in the faculty ranks. Hiring faculty whose scholarship crosses disciplines is a priority at Northeastern. Of the new faculty hired last year, 51% were jointly appointed, and 33% of all jointly appointed faculty self-report an underrepresented status. Join us in sharing best practices for recruiting and interviewing for joint appointments. We'll share findings from recent surveys and successful search committee members.
